AN APOLOGY.

THE PROSECUTION OF THE OPIUM FARMER.

T BEG to express through your columns my deep regret that I should in a hasty moment, in consequence of my not being able to read or understand Chinese accounts, have commenced a presecution against Mr. KOH CHENG SEAN, the chief manager of the late Opium Farm, with reference to the funds of the CHEANG TEK KONG SEE. A COMplete investigation into the matter and a careful examination of the books and accounts have thoroughly convinced me that my suspicious were wholly groundless, and that there has been nothing whatever in Mr. KOH CHENG SEAN'S manof the business of the OPIUM FARM that is in any way reprehousible; and further, that he has all along been doing his best, honestly and faithfully, for the benefit of the CHEANG TEK HUNG LOU MENG, or the Dream of the Red Chamber, translated from the Chi-

KONG SEE. I should be obliged if you would insert this letter in your corresp indence column once, and afterwards as an advertisement for the period of one month, an I am. anxious to undo as far as possible any injury I may have, through my heaty and unjustifiable action, inflicted upon Mr.

KOH CHENG SEAN. Yours truly, OH TEK LEONG. "Hongkong, March 22, 1892, the morning of the 25th inst. for Hongkong, ric Kobe and Shanghai. 1.10 To DAY in the Supreme Court there was & suggestion of an apparent difficulty arising from the appointment of Mr Justice Fielding Clarke as Acting Chief Justice. His Lordship, in the Summary Court, had delivered judgment in a case in which hir Dennya represented the unsuccessful suitor. 0.50 Mr Dennys said he had not seen his client, but his previous instructions were to appear in the event of an adverse judgment. While giving notice of appeal he felt he was placed in a peculiar position from the fact that his Lordahip was likely to be Acting Chief Justice as well as Puisne Judge. Mr Juslice Clarke assured Mr Depuys there would be no difficulty were the case appealed.

To hav, a case was brought before Mr. Wise at the Magistracy which illustrates the usefulness of the Po Leung Kuk for At Moukden, Manchuria, on the 1st coping with the svil of kidnapping. Teu Ho, widow, and Ng On, cuolis; were charged with taking part in bringing Shui Moi, a married woman, into the colony for the purpose of prostitution, and the first defendant was further charged with harbouring and receiving the complainant for purposes of prostitution on 24th inst. The complainant stated that she belonged to San Ui, in the province of Kwang Tung. She went to Canton to see her mother on 17th inst. While there she met the defendants who were acquaintances of her mother. They said they were going to Hongkong, and as she was anxious to see a relative named Leung Hok-kan she sailed with them by the night boat, arriving in Hongkong early on the morning of the 18th inst. She was taken to a woman at Taipingshan. Complainant, who is 23 years of age, denied that she came to be a prostitute. Her mother arrived by the next boat from Cansequence of the increase of the number of ton, and warned her not to believe all she heard. A woman named Ngan Yok Ho. for the punishment by death of persons brought some one to see her in order to make a purchase. The first defendant wanted $220 for her, and the would-be purchaser offered $180. She had been told Straits Settlements, has arrived home on | not to look out of the window as she might large of absence. THE Nanking correspondent of the Shang has Mercury writes:- Two of the prominent hills around Nanking, the North Poh hill and the Charcoal hill, have now been occupied for some months by military barracks. From the latter place every day one can see a long file of soldiers, with a prodigious number of banners, marching by a narrow footpath to a neighbouring exercise ground, where they are drilled in the use of the musket and put through a little general exercise. Their work is never so hard that they cannot find leisure enough to call out in good Hunanese Foreign dovil whenever they see any of us inspect ing them; but ever since the New Year the guards have been withdrawn from around our compounds and we are not going ou just as we did before the trouble of last spring and summer.

By the death of Dr. Donald Frager; English Presbyterianism loses one of its foremost men. Daring his twenty three years' pastorate in London he occupied a large place in the public esteem. In occlesiastical polity Dr. Fraser was a Conservative, and was strongly opposed to the view that the Prosbyterian Church in England should fall into line with the Nanconformist Churches, and take a definite part in their struggles. He preferred to think of his Charch as simply ministering to the religious needs of southmen in England, and to others who might be naturally drawn within its pale. He instinctively shrank from anything that seemed like an attitude of hostility to the Church of England. Although more advanced opinions now prevail among the Presbyterian ministers south of the Tweed, Dr. France's position and well-known views always commanded the highest respect from his colleagues. "As a preacher, in his own denomination he had few equals, and by competent judges was regarded as in point of elecution one of the finest readers of Scripture in any of the Churches.
